

Youth on a Mission: NorCal Catholic Discipleship Training

WHAT SHOULD YOU PACK?

DRESS CODE: We ask all participants at Youth on a Mission to dress modestly. Clothing must cover all undergarments and midriffs. No sagging, no low-cut tops, no short shorts, no clothing with offensive language or obscene pictures, no costumes, etc.

What to Bring List

- A great attitude!
- Sleeping bag or sheets and blanket
- Pillow
- Jammies
- Towel
- Toiletries (soap, shampoo, toothbrush, paste, personal care items)
- Modest clothing – it may be warm during the day
- Sweater or sweat-shirt – it will be cool at night and we will be outside for part of the evening
- Comfortable shoes, you will be walking up and down stairs
- Water Bottle
- Backpack – to hold your binder, bible, water bottle, etc.
- Bible
- Sunscreen
- Flashlight
- A cell phone or tablet (Yes you can have your phone during this training 😊)
- Spending money for Cal Maritime Book Store (they have sweatshirts, t-shirts, hats, books, etc.)

Male and female participants will be assigned to different floors. A maximum of two (2) individuals may be assigned to each room. No teens will be allowed in the dorm rooms without chaperones in the dorm building.